

At Sunrise – by Bliss Carman

LibriVox volunteers bring you 14 recordings of At Sunrise by Bliss Carman. This was the Weekly - Fortnightly Poetry project for September 18, 2016. Canada has full right to be proud of her poets, a small body though they are; but not only does Mr. Carman stand high and clear above them all—his place (and time cannot but confirm and justify the assertion) is among those men whose poetry is the shining glory of that great English literature which is our common heritage. (Bliss Carman: An Appreciation; [Later Poems by Bliss Carman] McClelland & Steward, 1921)
